Re: Response IE_FOI_313

Dear [REDACTED],

I refer to your request dated 19th October 2019 made under the Freedom of Information Act 2014, which was received by my office on that date, for records held by Iarnród Éireann.

Request:

- Please can you tell me the last recorded death's at Connolly train station and the circumstances of it occurring.

17/04/2016 - in the toilets of Connolly station - death by misadventure

Customer or public deaths within the last 10 years (specifically those caused by the customer running for the train) should suffice

There has been O (Zero) deaths within the last 10 years (specifically caused by the customer running for the train).

I, Michelle O'Rourke, have now made a final decision to grant your request on 22nd October 2019.

You have sought access to the records as listed above and I consider this an appropriate form of access in this case. Accordingly, a copy of the records is now attached including a copy of the schedule to these records.

Rights of appeal

In the event that you are not happy with this decision you can make an appeal in relation to this matter, you can do so by writing to the FOI Unit, Corporate Communications, Iarnród Éireann Irish Rail, Connolly Station, Amiens St, Dublin 1 or by e-mail to foi@irishrail.ie. You should make your appeal within 4 weeks (20 working days) from the date of this notification, where a day is defined as a working day excluding, the weekend and public holidays, however, the making of a late appeal may be permitted in appropriate circumstances.

The appeal will involve a complete reconsideration of the matter by a more senior member of the staff of this body.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding the above, please contact the FOI Officer on 01, 7034293.

Yours sincerely,

Michelle O'Rourke

Decision Maker
