Guide Dogs on Trains

Guide Dogs and Assistance Dogs are permitted to travel on all Iarnród Éireann services without restriction. An assistance dog must be clearly identifiable either by coat or harness to distinguish it as a working dog and not a pet.

Pets on Trains

- Small dogs can be carried free of charge in the passenger compartment of services provided they travel on the owners lap – Only one small dog per person.
- The dog must be kept on a lead at all times unless contained in a basket or in an appropriate container
- Small cats can be carried free of charge in the passenger compartment of services provided they travel in a secure carrier on the customer's lap.
- Animals are not allowed in restaurant cars with the exception of Guide Dogs or Assistance Dogs.
- If a customer objects to the presence of a dog in their carriage, the owner will be requested to move to another part of the train

Accompanied dogs, other than those described above, can only be conveyed on services if a Guards Van is available (non-passenger compartment) (i.e. Dublin/Cork and Dublin/Belfast services only).

Dogs conveyed in a Guard's Van must be secured with a collar and chain and securely muzzled or in a container.

If there is no guard's van (non-passenger compartment) on a service, dogs (other than Guide Dogs, Assistance Dogs and small/lap dogs) may not be carried on that train.

Iarnród Éireann reserve the right to refuse to carry any animal which, in the opinion of station staff, is causing or is likely to cause inconvenience to passengers due to its size or behaviour. On train staff are also authorised to have such animals removed from the train.

Secondary Cross Border

Secondary Cross Border fares are calculated by adding the Express Single, Day or Open Return Fare to Dundalk to the NI fare from Dundalk to the destination in the North.

For example to find a Single Fare from Sligo to Belfast:-

1. Find the Iarnród Éireann Origin & Zone on page 33
A journey starting in Sligo is Zone U to Dundalk (table below) = €61.80
2. Select the Translink / Northern Ireland Railways Destination & Zone from page 34
A journey to Belfast is Zone D from Dundalk (table below) = €19.00
€61.80 + €19.00 = €80.80

The Adult Single from Sligo to Portrush is €80.80

Alternatively, go to the grid on page 35 and select Zone D Single row; under Zone U column = €80.80
