Re: FOI request IE_FOI_129

Dear [REDACTED],

I refer to your request dated 4th November which was received by this office on 6th November 2017, which you have made under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 for records held by this FOI body. Your request sought:

Request – All relevant documentation relating to:

Any correspondence between the department of transport tourism and sport and Iarnród Éireann regarding the industrial strike on Wednesday November 1st and the planned industrial strikes on Tuesday November 7th, Tuesday November 14th, Thursday November 23rd and Friday November 8th.

I, Ms. Heidi Reardon, Decision Maker have now made a final decision on the 6th November, 2017

I can confirm that there has been no correspondence between the Irish Rail Chief Executive David Franks and the Department Of Transport Tourism and Sport during this timeframe.

As is explained below, this decision is made under section 15(1)(a) of the Act. Section 15(1)(a) of the Act states that an FOI request may be refused if:

‘the record concerned does not exist or cannot be found after all reasonable steps to ascertain its whereabouts have been taken,’

In an effort to locate the records that you are seeking I conducted a thorough search on Mr Franks PC and Email account both incoming and outgoing.

Furthermore, neither Mr. Franks nor I can identify any hard copies of correspondence on this topic.

Decision

I have listed above the searches undertaken, and the results of those searches. In accordance with the requirements of section 15(1)(a) I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to identify and locate the records requested [or to identify any records in relation to your request as they do not exist]. I am unable to locate the records concerned and must therefore refuse your request on this basis.

Rights of appeal

In the event that you are not happy with this decision you can make an appeal in relation to this matter, you can do so by writing to the FOI Unit, Corporate Communications, Iarnród Éireann Irish Rail, Connolly Station, Amiens St, Dublin 1 or by e-mail to foi@irishrail.ie. You should make your appeal within 4 weeks (20 working days) from the date of this notification, where a day is defined as a working day excluding, the weekend and public holidays, however, the making of a late appeal may be permitted in appropriate circumstances.

The appeal will involve a complete reconsideration of the matter by a more senior member of the staff of this body.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding the above, please contact the FOI Officer on 01 7034293.

Yours sincerely,

Heidi Reardon
