

4th September

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Re: FOI Request Internal Review [IE_FOI_100 internal review]

Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to the appeal which you made under the Freedom of Information Acts 2014 and our acknowledgement letter dated 30th August 2017.

I, Barry Kenny, am a more senior member of the staff of this body than the person making the first decision and I have decided on 4th September 2017 to affirm the original decision on your request. This decision on review is an entirely new and separate decision on your request, and is explained as such below.

I reviewed the original correspondence, and enquired on the records sought, which were:

Your original request, sought access to the following records, in arriving at this decision I have had regard to the original request, the records which were located as part of that request, and the appeal letter which you submitted in this regard.

Request –

- details on the # of passengers on the 17:55 Docklands - M3 Parkway service on 21st June 17 specifically:
 - # of seats available and
 - number of passengers on this service

Decision

I have listed below the information you requested under the FOI Act 2014, and my review.

1. Number of seats available: I am satisfied that you were provided with this information in response to your original request, and that the information provided to you was accurate.
2. Number of passengers on this service: I am satisfied that no such record exists which could accurately provide you with this information.

Having regard to the above decision, I have decided to affirm the decision made by the original decision maker in relation to your request.

You may appeal this decision by writing to the Information Commissioner at 18 Lower Leeson Street, Dublin 2. There is a fee of €50 for such appeals, other than appeals against a decision to impose a fee. If you wish to appeal, you must usually do so not later than 6 months from the date of this notification. Should you write to the Information Commissioner making an appeal, please refer to this letter.

If an appeal is made by you and accepted, the Information Commissioner will fully investigate and consider the matter and issue a fresh decision.

Yours sincerely,

Barry Kenny,
FOI Internal Reviewer,
Corporate Communications Manager, Iarnród Éireann