

© Copyright 2007 - 2017 Iarnród Éireann. All rights reserved. Any information provided herein by Iarnród Éireann is produced for a specific purpose and it shall be used only for the purposes it was produced. This drawing must not be altered or modified in whole or part without prior written permission of Iarnród Éireann. All Ordnance Survey of Ireland data used for plans are produced under Ordnance Survey No. 0039712. The Iarnród Éireann logo or any brand or tradename or trademark (whether registered or not) of Iarnród Éireann or the logo of CIÉ (Córas Iompáir Éireann) or any brand or tradename or trademark of CIÉ (whether registered or not), or any branding of any group company of CIÉ, may not be used or permitted to be used in whole or in part by any party.

Lnight 2017, Irish Rail - All Heavy Rail, Dublin Agglomeration

Lnight is the night time noise indicator and is used in the assessment of sleep disturbance. It is the average noise level calculated over all night periods, 23:00 to 07:00, for one year. The map above indicates the Lnight decibel (dB) bands reported for Strategic Noise Mapping 2017.